

Your New Clothes

There must be style, quality and service in tailored to individual measure clothes that invite the question

Whose your Tailor?

Our custom tailored department has become so widely known and so largely patronized because of the unvarying high standard maintained by our Chicago tailors.

E. V. Price & Co.

We doubt if any other high class tailor in the country can show as fine a lot of patterns in quality woollens as we are now offering for discriminating selection. May we prove these statements to you?

Married

The marriage of Miss Rosa A. Rehm and Frederick Beckmann took place Tuesday morning, May 20, 1919, at an 8 o'clock Bridal Mass at the Catholic Church in Ste. Genevieve, Rev. Father C. L. van Tourenhout officiating. Miss Viola Basler, a cousin of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, and wore a pink georgette frock and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Samuel Rehm, a brother of the bride, served as best man. The bride's gown was of white georgette over white satin. Her tulle veil was arranged high to the back of her coiffure and was caught on the side with orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. A dinner and reception was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rehm, a brother of the bride, after which the young couple left for St. Louis where they will make their home. Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were: Mrs. Elizabeth Beckmann, Mrs. Josephine Young, Mr. and Mrs. John Erkman and children, John and Marie, Misses Viola Basler, Nora Holly and Hilda Ware and William Coeney of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. John Crain and little daughter, Melvin, and Raymond Rehm of Crystal City, and Maurice and Irma Rehm of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Miss Trixie Politte and Raymond Tlapak were united in marriage at the Catholic Church at River Mines, at noon Sunday, May 11, 1919, Rev. Father Cunningham of Desloge officiating. They were attended by John Govro and Miss Lottie Douglas. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Politte of Elvins, and the groom is the son of Mr. Thomas Tlapak of St. Mary's. After a sumptuous wedding dinner had been served at the home of the bride's parents, the happy couple left for a honeymoon trip to St. Louis, thence to St. Mary's to visit the groom's relatives. They will make their home at Elvins, where the groom is engaged in the retail meat and grocery business.

Miss Mary Wittkopf and John L. Muessig were married Tuesday morning May 20, 1919, during a 9 o'clock Nuptial Mass, at the Catholic Church at Weingarten, Rev. Father Kotte officiating. The witnesses to the ceremony were Miss Anna Wittkopf, a sister of the bride and Joseph Schaub. The bride is the daughter of Joseph Wittkopf of Weingarten and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Muessig of New Offenburg. A dinner and supper was served at the home of the grooms to the near relatives and few friends. The happy couple will make their home with the grooms parents.

Died.
